Your profile will be set to public automatically when you sign up. You can change this later in your profile settings.

Step 1: log in to the website

The screenshot shows a web page with a light gray background. At the top, the text "Sign Up" is written in a large, red, cursive font. Below it, the text "Already a member?" is in a smaller, red, sans-serif font, followed by a red circle around the text "Log In" in a green, sans-serif font. A red arrow points from the right towards the "Log In" link. Below this, there are three buttons: a white button with a Google logo and the text "Sign up with Google", a blue button with a Facebook logo and the text "Sign up with Facebook", and a white button with the text "Sign up with email". A horizontal line with the word "or" in red is positioned between the Facebook and email buttons. At the bottom, a line of red text reads: "Your profile will be set to public automatically when you sign up. You can change this later in your profile settings."

If you already have an account, make sure to switch to the “Log In” page.
